

	My Place	Populations on the Move	Gifts we Bring	Making Connections
Junior years	Through My Window is a simple and engaging e-mail activity.	Design a survey of your class.	We are all Special ... Explore your uniqueness and learn to recognise and celebrate the uniqueness.	Do you want to link with cultures and communities across the world?
	Virtual Tour. Investigate the experiences of some students from the NT.	Email, Role Play game. You do need to register for this.	In Our Class. Identify the common features and differences.
	Get involved in different WebQuests.		Special Days/Special Celebrations.
Middle years	Through My Window is a simple and engaging e-mail activity.	Take up the challenge of a WebQuest and Internet Scavenger hunt – 'What does it mean to be Australian'.	We are all Special ... Explore your uniqueness and learn to recognise and celebrate the uniqueness.	What do you think? Discuss through the online discussion web forums.
	Junior Journalist. You have been approached to write an article for the local newspaper.	Design a survey of your class.	In Our Class. Identify the common features and differences between those in your class.	Do you want to link with cultures and communities across the world?
	Cultural Map. Draw a cultural map of your suburb to explain it to a group of visitors from another part of Australia.	Email, Role Play game. You do need to register for this.	Contributions to Australia ... Investigate (1) renowned artists, performing artists or sports person who have come to Australia.	Put yourself in an immigrant's shoes. Put yourself in an immigrant's shoes.
	Cultural snapshot. Pick a year and paint a snapshot in story form.	Australia is a religiously diverse nation with over 25 major religious denominations. Investigate.	Special Days/Special Celebrations. Choose between 3 and 5 special days or celebrations.	Celebrating Diversity. Design a float for the next Multicultural festival

	Get involved in different WebQuests.	Use your mathematical and research skills to identify the links.	Chips to Sushi. Discuss how our food tastes have changed over the past 30 years.
Secondary	Virtual Museum. Design a virtual museum with three rooms.	Design a survey of your class.	Medley of Music Look at the influence of foreign/indigenous cultures on our current music.	What do you think? Discuss through the online discussion web forums.
	Junior Journalist. You have been approached to write an article for the local newspaper.	Email, Role Play game. You do need to register for this.	Contributions to Australia ... Investigate (1) renowned artists, performing artists or sports person who have come to Australia and describe the legacy that they have brought with them.	Do you want to link with cultures and communities across the world?
	Get involved in different WebQuests.	Investigate the pre-historical nature and historical nature of humans to continually be on the move.	Chips to Sushi. Discuss how our food tastes have changed over the past 30 years.	Put yourself in an immigrant's shoes.
		Australia is a religiously diverse nation with over 25 major religious denominations. Investigate.
		Use your mathematical and research skills to identify the links.

Visit the theme webpages to find out more about each of the activities:

Populations on the Move: <http://netdays.edna.edu.au/themes/populations.html>

My Place: <http://netdays.edna.edu.au/themes/myplace.html>

Gifts we Bring: <http://netdays.edna.edu.au/themes/gifts.html>

Making Connections: <http://netdays.edna.edu.au/themes/connections.html>